

EALING BLUES FESTIVAL

19-20 July

Spanning over two days, the Ealing Blues Festival is the largest dedicated blues event in Britain. Bringing together a range of musical styles, from soulful blues through to heavy rock tunes.

Time

Gates open at 1.30pm, show runs from 2-10.30pm

Location

Walpole Park, Mattock Lane, Ealing W5

Entry

£5 per day or £8 for both days.
Children aged 12 and under are free.

Saturday, 19 July

Main stage

2.00 – 3.00pm

Robert Hokum Blues Band

3.30 – 4.30pm Rabbit Foot

5.00 – 6.30pm

Jeremiah Marques & The Blue Aces

7.00 – 8.30pm

Connie Lush & Blues Shouter

9.00 – 10.30pm Devil Drives

Bar stage

3.00 – 3.30pm

Geoff Garbow Blues Band

4.30 – 5.00pm

Geoff Garbow Blues Band

6.30 – 7.00pm

Tommy Allen & Johnny Hewitt

8.30 – 9.00pm

Tommy Allen & Johnny Hewitt

South stage

2.00 – 3.30pm The Others R&B

4.00 – 5.00pm

TJ 'Holyboy' Johnson &
The Preachers

5.30 – 6.30pm Robin Bibi

7.00 – 8.00pm Mack

8.30 – 10.00pm

Big Boy Bloater & The Limits

Sunday, 20 July

Main stage

2.00 – 3.00pm Jules Carter Trio

3.30 – 4.45pm Hat Fitz & Cara

5.15 – 6.30pm Tim Aves
& Wolfpack

7.00 – 8.30pm Kat & Co

9.00 – 10.30pm

Earl Thomas & The Royal Guard

Bar stage

3.00 – 3.30pm Jimmy The Dog

4.45 – 5.15pm

The Golden Manor Medicine Show

6.30 – 7.00pm Jump 66

8.30 – 9.00pm Jump 66

South stage

2.00 – 2.30pm

The Golden Manor Medicine Show

2.45 – 3.45pm Andy Twyman

4.15 – 5.15pm Glorious Fools

5.45 – 6.45pm The Francis
Gahan Band

7.00 – 8.00pm The Chairs

8.30 – 10.00pm

The Alan Glen & John O'leary
All Star Blues Revue